Note cont?

Orders were accordingly issued in Govt Pro. No. 2935, dated 3rd December 1906. In the Proceedings it was observed that it would be sufficient to rectify the existing abuses by providing checks and restrictions to be submitted to by the Iyya in the exercise of his powers of the management of the temple and the Matt without actually depriving him of any of them, and for this purpose the Deputy Commissioner was requested to report the names of some 2 persons of local influence not being the acknowledged enemies of the Iyya for appointment as Dharmadarsis.

The Deputy Commissioner has now recommended the names of Jeerahalli Audani Gowda and Byrava Gowda, Patel of Chunchinhalli, both literate, for the Dharmadarsishipp. The former, viz Andani Gowda is stated on page 18 of this Note, to be a bitter enemy of the Iyya. The Amildar also, in his report to the Assistant Commissioner brings this fact to notice, and states that they ~~are~~ are recently reconciled with each other, but observes that it cannot be predicated how long ~~such~~ the present attitude will last He therefore suggests the name of one Nanjunda Gowda, nephew ~~of~~ of the said Andani Gowda, and states that he is also literate and lives at Jeerahalli separately from his uncle Andani Gowda. He further states that there are none others eligible for the post The Assistant Commissioner however recommends Andani Gowda and Byrava Gowda, leaving out the Nanjunda Gowda as he is related to the former viz Andani Gowda.

In the draft approved and issued it was observed that though Andani Gowda and the Ryya had become reconciled with each other, they were on inimical terms at the time before the Govt order was issued, and that therefore it did not appear expedient to appoint the said Andani Gowda as a Dharmadarsi. The Deputy Commissioner was therefore requested to report if there was any objection to Jeerhalli Nanjunda Gowda, nephew of the said Andani Gowda being appointed to co-operate with Byrava Gowda as Dharmadarsi of the Matt and the temple at Chunchingiri. In reply, the Deputy Commissioner stated that the said of Jeerahalli nanjunda Gowda may be appointed Dharmadarsi.
